ROW THY BOAT LIGHTLY.

Poetry by Miss H. F. Woodman.

Music by I. B. Woodbury.

Andante.

Row thy boat lightly love

over the sea; Twilight is falling, I'll hasten with thee; O'er the blue wa-ters now sparkling with foam, Evermore dearest, to dwell in thy home! Row thy boat lightly, love over the sea, Dai - ly and nightly I'll wander with thee, On its clear bosom con - tented we'll roam, Ev - er more dearest to dwell in thy home.

Brave is the heart of the fisherman's bride,

Tho' the wind fretteth the wave in its pride, What tho' the storm hath encompassed the sea!

Clasping her treasure, oh what careth she! Row thy boat lightly, love over the sea,

Daily and nightly I'll wander with thee, On its clear bosom contented we'll roam,

Ever more dearest to dwell in thy home.

3

How the bark dashes from mountain to vale,
 Toss'd like a feather, the sport of the gale
 Now it is riven!— Together they go
 To the still depths of the (caverns below!)

Row thy boat lightly &c.
